

Winnie the Pooh....Tom Sawyer....Harry Potter. Characters such as these come to life through the power of books. You can run through the Hundred Acre Woods, float down the river on a paddleboat, or learn magic at Hogwarts School, all through the power of your imagination, and a good book!

Quota International of Cedar Rapids, Inc. is an international service organization that has been helping deaf and hard of hearing people, and disadvantaged women and children, here in the Cedar Rapids community since 1940. Through our proud partnership with the Cedar Rapids Police Department, the Cops 'n' Kids Reading Program has set up Reading Corners in several places in the City where your child can go and read a book or take one home to keep for their very own.

Reading Corners are located at:

HD Youth Center, 1445 Mt Vernon Road SE
NW Neighborhood Center, 1340 11th Street NW

Books are available in age range from pre-school to 8th Grade level.

Stop in and take a book with our compliments. And your child can embark on a magical journey that only reading a good book can provide!
