Mount Mercy competes in the Heart of America Athletic Conference (the Heart) and the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA). The NAIA, which offers 25 championships in 13 sports, has 50,000 student-athletes participating at nearly 300 member colleges and universities throughout the United States and Canada.

The NAIA Champions of Character program is an educational outreach initiative which emphasizes the tenets of character and integrity, not only for NAIA college students, but for younger students, coaches and parents in our communities. We all have a role in developing students of character, and the NAIA Champions of Character program offers training, guidelines and behavior models to create positive environments that promote personal growth and fun sport activity.

AARON JENNINGS
Head Men's Basketball Coach
Camp Director

Jennings moved back to the men's game prior to the 2015-16 season and was named the Association of Independent Institutions (A.I.I.) Coach of the Year while leading the Mustangs to the NAIA Division II national tournament for the second straight season and third time in four years. Mount Mercy made its debut in the Heart of America Athletic Conference in 2016-17, finishing in a tie for second place while earning a berth in their first NAIA Division I national tournament.

Before that, Jennings was head women's basketball coach at Mount Mercy for seven seasons, going 138-90 during that time while guiding the Mustangs to the quarterfinals of the NAIA Division II national tournament in 2011-12. Prior to coaching the Mount Mercy women, Jennings was the top assistant for the Mustang men's basketball program for four years.

A native of Atkins, Iowa, and a former Benton Community prep, Jennings earned a bachelor of science in communication from Northwestern in Evanston, Ill., in 2003. He was a four-year letterwinner and team captain his junior and senior seasons for the Wildcats.

Session 2: Mon-Thu July 17-20 ($150)
Grades 3-8 8:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m.
(lunch not included)

The offensive improvement camp is designed for boys entering grades 3-8 who want to gain some serious offensive skills this summer!

Our outstanding staff of coaches, current and former players will take you through the Mustang Offensive Improvement series. This sequence of drills has helped make the Mustangs one of the top offensive programs in the country.

Specific attention will be given to shooting, ballhandling, footwork, passing, cutting, screening and offensive rebounding. Campers will also get to test these new skills in full- and half-court games and individual contests.
