THE TALK: RACE IN AMERICA

Film Screening and Q&A

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 21 | 5:30 PM
CEDAR RAPIDS PUBLIC LIBRARY

Join us at the Cedar Rapids Public library for a screening of The Talk: Race in America. This two-hour documentary is about the increasingly common conversation taking place in homes and communities across the country between parents of color and their children, especially sons, about how to behave if they are ever stopped by the police.

Following the movie, Karl Cassell, managing partner at Top RANK Staffing and former Executive Director of the Cedar Rapids Civil Rights Commission, will lead a Q&A session.
